Paris Walking Tour Directions

Paris Gare de Lyon

Walk up Place Louis-Armand towards Rue de Lyon. Then walk straight up to Place de la Bastille. On your right, just before the Place de la Bastille you will see the Opera House, and then in front of you, you will see the Colonne de Juillet standing in the middle of the place (roundabout).

Place de la Bastille

Turn left onto Rue Saint-Antoine and then turn right onto Rue de Birague. Continue until you reach the park named Place de Vosges.

Le Marais

Cross the park and turn left onto Rue des Francs Bourgeois. Here you can zigzag through the neighborhood, or continue straight on until you reach Rue Vieille du Temple where you'll turn left again. Walk down until you reach Rue de Rivoli and then turn right. Continue on until you see the Hotel de Ville on your left.

Hotel de Ville

Walk across the courtyard of the Hotel de Ville and then cross the Seine River by taking the Pont d'Arcole. Carry on straight until you reach the Cathedral of Notre Dame on your left.

Cathedral Notre Dame

Walk alongside the water, up Quai du Marché Neuf and Quai des Orfèvres until the end of the island where you'll find Pont Neuf.

Pont Neuf

Cross Pont Neuf and then turn left onto Quai du Louvre. Continue straight on until you find the Palais du Louvre on your right.

Louvre

Walk through the Louvre Square, and behind the pyramid you will enter the Tuileries Garden.

Tuileries Garden

Walk through the garden and make your way towards the Place de la Concorde at the end. This is where you'll find the Luxor Obelisk.

Luxor Obelisk

Walk straight on and you'll find the Avenue des Champs-Élysées

Champs-Élysées

Continue up the wide avenue until you reach the Arc de Triomphe.

Arc de Triomphe

From the Arc de Triomphe, take the Avenue d'Iéna or Avenue Kléber towards the Trocadéro gardens.

Trocadéro gardens

Cross the gardens and the Pont d'Iéna to reach the base of the Eiffel Tower.
